Many thanks to everyone who gave so generously to Christian Aid Week, £91.66 was collected, £38 more than last year! Congratulations and thanks to everyone concerned including the collectors who sometimes find themselves going back and back again to find someone at home. If there are any uncollected envelopes in the village please let Chris Nash have them.

Thanks also to everyone who helped with clearing the churchyard and spring cleaning the church. Not many helped with the latter but the few still managed to make a good job.

PARISH COUNCIL - Alison Goodenough - Clerk.

The support for 'Operation Spring clear' was a little thin this year so many thanks to those who did help with the tidying of the Green on 28th April.

The Annual Parish Meeting was held on 21st May but fewer people attended than we used to get some years ago. Next year I will try to improve the publicity for this meeting in order to generate a larger audience.

Reports on the year's proceedings were made by most of the village organisations and I would like to thank all those who gave these reports for their time and trouble.

The Parish Council is still considering improvements to the recreation ground so if you have any ideas for equipment or other amenities that could be provided at a reasonable cost please let someone on the Council know.

With regard to a possible Neighbourhood Watch Scheme in the village the Parish Council will be inviting a representative of the police to come and talk about what would be entailed, some time in the autumn. Everyone will be welcome.

SCALDWELL SOCIETY - Angie Farmer, Chairman.SUMMER FAIR/SCALDWELL WEEKEND - 21st / 23rd June

Our plans for the above are well underway. Committee members will be calling on everyone over the next few weeks for contributions to the usual stalls, a "Round Robin" will be delivered in early June detailing suitable items (basically absolutely everything!). This will also have details as to when collections will be made.

As you probably also know the event this year includes an Art Exhibition,

Garden Tour, Pig Roast and Car Boot Sale. A programme of events will also be delivered shortly.

May I take this opportunity of thanking you in advance for your support. I hope everyone will enjoy themselves.

NEWSLETTER

I would like to thank Christine Nash who has taken over the Newsletter. I feel sure she will make an excellent editor.

SCALDWELL CLUB - Dave Farmer, Chairman

I would like to welcome Pam Long on to the committee. Pam I am sure will be a very valuable member of the team, and this brings us up to full strength.

Subscriptions are now overdue, and Patrick Deery will be posting a reminder through everyone's door along with a list of the opening times. If you are not a member then now is a good time to join.

Relocation of the bar

Rob Thorne and myself have had another meeting with Lionel Gordon the Greenè King rep. We explained that we would like to take the loan he had offered us but, could not accept the penalty clause set on barrelage. Lionel has agreed to waive this penalty clause, and we await confirmation of this. Hopefully we are now another step closer to the new bar.

The old Golf Ladder has been changed to a Golf League, but I see that no one has as yet played their first game. I would urge you all to play these as soon as possible, otherwise the games will start to pile up.

I would like to thank all who attended the Club's AGM, and hope to see you all at the club over the next twelve months.

SCALDWELL ART EXHIBITION - Maggie Engeloglou, Organiser.

During the '60s and '70s Scaldwell was famous for its summer Art Exhibition, and this year it will be revived in conjunction with the Scaldwell Weekend, (June 21st-23rd). Many well known Northamptonshire artists will be exhibiting in the church. The works will be for sale.

There will be a Private View on the evening of Friday, 21st June at 6 p.m. in the church, to be followed by a Wine and Cheese Party in the garden of Home Farmhouse. AGE CONCERN - Sue Dodds-Smith, Local Contact

Age Concern can offer help in many ways too numerous to list here, so if any Senior Citizen requires assistance please do ask and I will do my best to help, or find out where help can be acquired.

There are social clubs in nearby villages which would be happy to have new members and I have received a booklet from Age Concern entitled 'Your Rights'. This is a guide to money benefits available for older people, including information on pensions, tax, help for home owners and lots more information which may be of assistance. If help is required please contact Sue Dodds-Smith 881950.

CHILDREN'S SOCIETY - Alison Carter, Local representative.

Alison thanks everyone in the village, subscribers and collectors, for their generosity in delivering, collecting and giving. The total collection amounted to £72.25

DEREK HAIMES MOBILE BUTCHER, greengrocer and provisions provider comes to Scaldwell every Thursday at about 9.30 a.m. starting at Old Road and progressing round the village. At the moment he is using a large blue van but very soon he hopes to have a new one which will have his name etc. I know he is in East End from about 10.30 a.m. to lunch time. If you want more information please get in touch with Chris Nash, 880638.

BOWLS CLUB. A friendly match on the 6th July with Jackie Banks & Company.

LADYBIRD CLUB - Chris Nash

This club normally meets on the last Monday in the month, at 8 pm in the Village Hall, but on the last Monday in June we are meeting at Chris Hurst's home for a finger supper. Wine will be supplied but please will members bring food.

ED'S QUACKS - (Do you watch CBBC?)

It is often noticed how well behaved our children are, all 82 of them, apart of course from the babies and toddlers (it won't be long before they're joining in tho'). E' is referring to the children on the Green and the playing field, and generally around the village. It is a pleasure to see them playing happily together, age seems to make no difference. Also it is gratifying to see so little rubbish about and how full the bus stop bin always seems to be. Keep it up, or rather throw it in the bin!

COPY FOR THE NEXT ISSUE TO CHRIS NASH, COBBLERS COTTAGE, NO LATER THAN 25th JULY, 1991, PLEASE.

ED would like to hear of any achievements accomplished in the village, driving tests, engagements, exam results, athletic or any other attainments. Congratulations to Sarah Turner on passing the driving test.

Wishing all readers a happy summer and holidays.
